MEMORANDUM FOR: Director, Joint Computer Services

SUBJECT : Assistance to the Social Security Administration

REFERENCE : Memorandum from DDA, Subject: Detail of Full-Time Attorney to Directorate of Administration (DDA 76-1418), dtd 22 March 1976

Pursuant to our ongoing survey of the DDA as outlined in referent, you requested our opinion as to the legality of your recent assistance to the Social Security Administration. We do not find anything that would make such activity illegal. Although through no fault of yours we do however disagree, at least as a matter of principle, with the [REDACTED] procedure used by the Inspector General to advise as to the lack of illegality. We will address this matter directly with that office.
